Our Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) programmes were first accredited by NVAO in 2006 and re-accredited in 2012. Our Master of Business Administration (MBA) programmes were accredited in 2015. The BBA programmes have been approved again in 2018.

The Master of Business Administration (MBA) and Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) programmes are accredited by the German-Swiss-Austrian accreditation agency, the Foundation for International Business Administration Accreditation (FIBAA).

All of our International Business Administration programmes have received the Certificate for Quality in Internationalisation by the European Consortium for Accreditation in Higher Education (ECA).

Our joint MSc Degree Programmes are validated by the University of Brighton, under its own accreditation system. UK-accredited degrees are fully recognised in the Netherlands and worldwide.

In 2018, Wittenborg was ranked 4th Best Small University of Applied Sciences, and its Bachelor of Business Administration programmes were ranked 2nd in the Netherlands.

Wittenborg has been an AACSB member since 2017, and has embarked upon the preparations for AACSB accreditation, an institutional award which is globally recognised. The originally American AACSB and the Dutch accreditation authority NVAO have a partnership that allows for some overlap in recognition.

We have become a member of the newly launched Business Graduates Association (BGA), an accreditation organisation that expects its members to prove their commitments to social responsibility, diversity, equality and lifelong learning.

In 2017, Wittenborg was granted membership of the Association of MBAs (AMBA) Development Network. AMBA is considered one of the world’s leading authorities on postgraduate business education. It is the intention of Wittenborg to work towards AMBA accreditation for its MBA programme.

The IBA (Bachelor) in Financial Services Management has been accredited by ACCA - the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants - a global body for professional accountants.

In 2019, we became a member of the Council of International Schools (CIS), a membership community that shares the fundamental pillars of Wittenborg: internationalisation, diversity and ethics. Members of CIS are characterised by a pursuit of high standards in leadership, global citizenship and sustainability.
Apeldoorn
Wittenborg’s main campus is located in Apeldoorn, in the centre of the Netherlands. Apeldoorn is a pleasantly green, clean, and safe city to study in. Our campuses are situated to the north and the south of the central station, in two buildings known as the Aventus Building and the Spoorstraat Building. Wittenborg students can enjoy ‘the gentle lifestyle’, while still being only an hour by train or car from the bustling Dutch capital Amsterdam, or the German border to the east. Schiphol airport is also only an hour away.

Amsterdam
Our Amsterdam campus is located in the heart of the city, close to the capital’s business, tourism and cultural heritage. Amsterdam’s international and entrepreneurial character matches perfectly with the needs of modern talents for global orientation, while studying in Amsterdam adds an exciting dimension to the Wittenborg experience. Students following the business and entrepreneurship programmes there often live in the city and combine their studies with business start-ups, which the city is famous for. The campus is within a business complex close to public transport and Schiphol airport.
WHY STUDY IN HOLLAND?

Dutch universities of applied sciences are focused on providing students with a combination of theory and practice. More than 85,000 international students in the Netherlands represent 170 different nationalities. Upon graduation, students are highly employable and compare very favourably with their British, US or Australian counterparts!

Although the Netherlands is a small country, it is home to many different nationalities. Compared to other European countries, Dutch people speak good English. Still, it is a good idea to use the opportunity as a student to learn Dutch - at Wittenborg, Dutch classes are offered to all students.

Without doubt, the Netherlands is the bicycle hub of the world. The excellent network of bicycle paths makes cycling a safe, healthy and comfortable way of getting around.

Holland is also perfectly located when it comes to travelling across Europe. Cities such as Berlin, Rome, Paris and Barcelona are all just a couple of hours away by plane from Schiphol airport. The excellent infrastructure as well as low-cost flight, train or bus tickets make travelling easy and accessible. Many international students at Wittenborg organise their studies in such a way as to allow plenty of time for travelling around Europe.
We offer you one of the most flexible entry date systems in the Netherlands, which gives you the possibility to start or graduate in each block - 6 times a year.

If you need additional preparation and support in English or foundation subjects to complete undergraduate study at Wittenborg, then the Pre-Bachelor Foundation programme can help you to develop the skills and knowledge to succeed in your degree.

BACHELOR PROGRAMME PATHWAYS & PHASES

Wittenborg’s Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) programme has been sub-divided into 4 different ‘Programme Pathways’:

- IBA - International Business Administration
- MCI - Marketing, Communication & Information
- HBA - Hospitality Business Administration
- EBA - Entrepreneurial Business Administration

During the first phase of all pathways, you are introduced to the concept of International Business Administration through introductory modules. The theory of management, as well as the concepts of starting a business, looking at the economic environment, and examining organisations from a worldwide perspective, are all part of the introduction. During phase one, all students follow six cross-disciplinary project weeks, introducing research, consultancy and intercultural and interpersonal skills. After completing the first phase of modules, you can easily switch programmes within your pathway.

In the second phase, you choose a specialisation from your pathway in which to graduate, and follow specialisation modules, continuing to develop research methods in your own field of interest. During this time, you also continue following the main business modules, continuing on from the first year, but now concentrating more on planning issues.

The final phase academic learning programme is completely directed towards graduation, with business and management modules focused on strategy and more depth in the specialisations. The final phase is completed with an academic graduation assignment that can be a dissertation, a business plan, or a consultancy project.

The work experience you obtain in the final phase is often a wonderful opportunity for you to get up close and personal with a career option.

EBA

ADMINISTRATION

The EBA programme is a Bachelor of International Business Administration in Entrepreneurship with three specialisations: Small Business, Digital Marketing, and Finance. Entrepreneurship & Small Business allows you to obtain a single degree from Wittenborg as well as a double degree with the University of Brighton - achieving a Bachelor of Science in Business and Management.

This programme is aimed at international and local students who aspire to work within an international context in the fields of management and administration, either in business or non-commercial organisations. Entering the programme, you will have a feel for an intercultural and multi-lingual learning environment.

The EBA is designed specifically to provide graduates with an extremely broad and equally balanced range of business, management and organisation knowledge, skills and competencies, whilst allowing you to specialise during the programme in the area of entrepreneurship, business start-ups, and innovation, through the development of business plans and models. The EBA is also aimed at providing you with the knowledge and skills that would enable you to further your studies at a higher level (master’s degree) if you wish to.

MEET YOUR CLASSMATE

Maike Nuyken
Germany
IBA Graduate of 2015

“The programme helped me to remain focused on the bigger picture and on long-term strategy, rather than being consumed by day-to-day business.”
As a Bachelor of International Business Administration student you will complete a series of broad modules. The MCI pathway is offered in 4 specialisations. These programmes will introduce you to the aspects that affect the success of an organisation.

The MCI pathway comprises a combination of business and digital marketing strategies, data science, branding and the way that businesses and organisations promote themselves to the outside world. It is the business of creating a constant image that will promote the company, its ideals and its products. This pathway goes further than just the production of printed or online material - it deals with the way an organisation communicates its messages, both internally and externally.

To achieve that successfully, an optimal and structured use of information technology and the management of information is a necessity. As a Business Administrator you need to understand and use technology that gathers and provides information within a local, national and global environment. The industry requires managers who are able to distil and recognise patterns in that information.

Following one of the MCI pathway programmes, you will be equipped with the necessary knowledge about an area that is vital to the successful operation of companies and organisations. The field of Marketing, Communication and Information is the key to success in many companies around the world.

HOSPITALITY BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

The HBA pathway offers specialisations of its broad BBA bachelor’s programme and a number of joint bachelor’s & master’s degrees with the University of Brighton. This pathway focuses on management development in the global hospitality, tourism, events and service management industries. The courses address core business and management subjects, and hospitality as a global phenomenon and how it is consumed by cultures and societies.

We work closely with our UK education partner, the University of Brighton, and many of our HBA degrees are jointly taught programmes. This means that students are taught by lecturers from a wide range of countries, as well as regular visiting staff from the University of Brighton. It also means that you can take advantage of gaining a British degree in the Netherlands, combining it with the Dutch degrees and all the benefits that brings. For instance, Dutch and European students can study a UK degree with a Dutch student loan and at lower cost!

Graduated in 2014

“The MSc helped to broaden my horizons and I started thinking more business oriented. Initially, I wanted to find a management position in the tourism and hospitality industry. However, the tutor said she was surprised that none of us wanted to run our own businesses. That changed everything about my way of thinking. I started imagining how I could find the funds, how I could run and own a hotel. After 3 years of thinking and planning, I opened my hotel.”
POSTGRADUATE PROGRAMMES

What to do after finishing the undergraduate programme? It’s never too early to start thinking about the next step. Next to our undergraduate programmes, we also offer full-time and part-time master’s degree programmes, lasting between 1 and 2 years.

The MBA degree is primarily aimed at students with a non-business administration bachelor’s degree, who have had 3 years of experience working in companies and organisations in a role that manages people or processes, or both. Candidates for the MBA need to speak good English and have worked in an international environment.

The Master of Business Management Programmes (MBM) are adapted and focused on bachelor’s graduates within the domain of economics. MBM programmes do not require work experience, in contrast to the ‘classic’ MBA programmes that require 3 years of work experience.

Four Master of International Management MSc degree programmes are offered together with the University of Brighton.

We also offer 4-5 year PhD research degrees together with our UK partner, the University of Brighton. You will study at Wittenborg in Apeldoorn and have two supervisors, one from the University of Brighton and one from Wittenborg. The PhD degree is awarded by the University of Brighton.

Pre-Master
This programme is perfect for you if you wish to study one of our MBM programmes or MSc in International Hospitality, International Tourism, or International Event Management, and require or would like to study a half-year master’s preparation course that will fully prepare you for your chosen programme. By involving all stakeholders and combining different experiences and disciplines, we develop creative and practical solutions for organisations that strengthen the economy and society.

In the context of Wittenborg’s motto, “Better Yourself, Better Our World”, the knowledge hub will benefit individuals and organisations, as well as society at large.
Life at Wittenborg as a student is not just about attending classes, writing assignments and cramming for exams. Our students are regularly encouraged to socialise, and make the best out of their study experience outside the classroom.

Student representatives
We believe in allowing students to be involved in continuously shaping our academic institution. Our Student Reps meet with the Management Team 6 times a year to communicate their thoughts, opinions and suggestions as a working unit. Student Reps are the voice of the students.

Student ambassadors
The Student Ambassadors are a group of enthusiastic students who are ready to share their first-hand experiences with prospective students on what it is like to study in the Netherlands and to be a student at Wittenborg. Student ambassadors can provide great insights and remove many doubts you may have. It may even be a perfect way to make new friends before arriving at Wittenborg!

Student associations
Student-led associations such as the Entrepreneurial Club and SWIFT are run by students for students. MEET YOUR POTENTIAL EMPLOYER

Zef Jansen, Export Department at Bredenoord - a power supply company where one Wittenborg student completed his internship.

"Interns of other universities can often be picky when it comes to tasks and assignments. Ishebo's theoretical level of understanding was more than sufficient, and working with him was a pleasant experience. He impressed us with his connections in Uganda and Tanzania, and was willing to do other tasks outside his intern assignments. We are open to more interns from Wittenborg."
Study is not merely about learning from textbooks and getting a degree. Preparing yourself for your future career and maintaining a successful career is an essential part of education. Preparing yourself for your career means upgrading your skills, building your network, knowing the needs of the industries and being fully equipped to meet those needs.

Our Careers Department will guide you and hand you the tools to connect with Wittenborg alumni and the industry. The department will also help you find companies for work placement or in-company trainings, and support you by organising individual coaching sessions, career development sessions and career and networking events where you can meet employers around the world.

You will be guided through the recruitment process until final evaluation of the actual job experience. Whether it’s writing or updating your CV, connecting with employers, or helping out to understand the Dutch labour law - this department does everything possible to prepare you for your career!
